Asian | American | Modern Art

Oct 25, 2008–Jan 18, 2009

Asian/American/Modern Art: Shifting Currents, 1900-1970 explores the wide range of cultural influences on artists of Asian ancestry who lived and worked in the United States. Nearly 100 works by over 70 artists of Japanese, Chinese, Filipino and Korean ancestry are included.

This exhibition is organized by the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco and the Asian American Art Project at Stanford University in collaboration with San Francisco State University, and is supported by the Ednah Root Foundation, the Phyllis C. Wattis Trust for traveling exhibitions, the National Endowment for the Arts, Delta Dental of California, and the E. Rhodes and Leona B. Carpenter Foundation.
